

Biography of Master Anne Radke

Master Anne is a private student of Grand Master Baker. She is one of the few women who has built her own school, Alpha UPKUDO, over 10 years ago which now has expanded to oversee four other UPKUDO schools. Master Anne named her school "Alpha" as a testimony that she puts God first in every aspect of her life.

In 2003 she developed the Alpha UPKUDO Fit Kids After School Program and in 2006 started the abetterbody.us personal training program to help persons with obesity issues and fitness problems. Her program has trained thousands to win competition victories, perform demonstrations and promote the importance of discipline, respect, having a positive attitude and always doing your personal best. She currently holds the position of Executive Director of A Better Body and 5th Degree Black Belt Master in UPKUDO. In 2004 she was appointed President of the UPKUDO International Karate Federation by Grand Master Gary Lee Baker, the founder of UPKUDO. In 2008, she developed the system CANE-DO for persons with disabilities and seniors.

Master Anne is a Certified Master Trainer which involves working with persons with physical challenges, Certified Senior Fitness Specialist, Certified Pilates Instructor and Certified Youth Fitness Instructor, which specializes in childhood fitness and obesity and Certified Sports Nutritionist and Zumba Instructor. She conducts seminars for private corporations, churches and law firms in self-defense for men and women. In addition to teaching karate and self defense, Master Anne also teaches kickboxing and CANE-DO self defense seminars for seniors and persons with disabilities at various locations. Teaching experience spans over 20 years. Her UPKUDO competition team, formed in 2000, has won over 2,000 trophies and 200 division titles in sparring, kata, and weapons and one World Title in sparring. Personal and professional references are available upon request.
